

The Toronto Chemical Biophysics Symposium 2023

Travel Award Application

Eligibility: All students from outside the greater Toronto area (GTA) are eligible for this award.
The award is assessed based on financial need.
Priority will be given to those who give oral or poster presentations.
The results will be announced prior to the meeting. A cheque will be mailed to successful applicants after the symposium.

Amount: Depends on need and number of applicants

Requirement: Application deadline: March 31st, 2023
The award should only be used towards reducing travel expenses for this conference. Hence, the research supervisor must be notified when you receive the award. Please mail or email the signed form to:
